

DUCK HUNTING OVER DOGS

Buenos Aires -- Argentina

Pampa offers duck shooting over decoys and behind a well-trained dog. There are 12 common species in the area: Yellow-billed Pintail, Rosey-billed Pochard, Brazilian Teal, White-faced Whistling Duck, Fulvous Whistling Duck, Speckled Teal, Silver Teal, Red Shoveler, Southern Wigeon, Cinnamon Teal, White-cheeked Pintail, Black-headed Duck, and Ring Teal. Season is April 20th to August 15th.

The beautiful, luxurious ranch is located near San Miguel del Monte, in the province of Buenos Aires, a short 90-minute drive from the Ezeiza International Airport in Buenos Aires.

A typical day starts before daybreak, with a hearty breakfast cooked precisely to your order. Depending on water conditions, you will arrive at the blinds after a 10 to 40 minute drive and start shooting at first light. The blinds are fresh and strategically located to assure great shooting.

Most days you will return for lunch at the lodge and, after a well-deserved siesta, you'll be shooting in nearby ponds until dark. Cocktails and dinner will await your arrival at the lodge.

- Perdiz shooting takes place in the afternoons. The high grasses near the lodge are the ideal place and our experienced guides will join you with their team of English Pointers and German Shorthairs. You will enjoy a memorable hunt
- Dove shooting as well as Wild Pigeon Hunting is available from the lodge.
- Blackbuck, Axis Deer and Wild Boar stalking available. This is a great combination with the small shooting game.

High quality services are the norm at this lodge including comfortable 4-wheel drive trucks, professional shooting guides, bird-boys in the field and gun cleaning, maid and laundry service, and masseuse. Semi-automatic, over and under shotguns, and 12 gauges for rent at the lodge.

Lodge accommodations include 5-double en suite bedrooms (capacity of 10 shooters), plus two extra double rooms that share a bathroom. All facilities are provided and include a well-stocked bar with the best Argentine wines, International cuisine and Argentine beef and traditional asados in the field.
